ANESTHESIOLOGY UPDATE 2015

COURSE OVERVIEW

This in-depth course, sponsored by the Harvard Medical School Departments of Anesthesia and Continuing Education, is intended to provide anesthesia practitioners with a comprehensive review of the most important advances in clinical anesthesiology, and each of its major subspecialties, including ambulatory, thoracic, pediatric, obstetric, regional, and cardiac anesthesia. The program will include lectures, panel discussions, problem-based discussions, workshops and ample time for interaction with faculty.

The course will include basic principles, while emphasizing clinical problems and controversial aspects of patient care. We will continue our popular format from previous years, with intensive all-day programs and evening workshops to provide hands-on instruction and practice, demonstrating our commitment to lifelong learning and providing a dynamic continuing educational experience to clinical and research professionals in the field of anesthesiology.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Adopt principles in the setting up of a surgical home
- Diagnose and develop a treatment plan for hemorrhagic shock
- Analyze large trials, assemble the evidence and measure quality in anesthesia practice
- Integrate updated guidelines in practice when managing the difficult airway
- Critique the role of the anesthesiologist in end-of-life care
- Adopt the latest evidence-based practices in obstetric anesthesia
- Incorporate the latest AHA/ACC guidelines and recommendations into practice

Who Attends

- Anesthesiologists
- Nurse anesthetists
- Research staff
- Residents
- Fellows
- Student nurse anesthetists

Accreditation

The Harvard Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Harvard Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of 58.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

- Course, including optional Lunch-and-Learn Roundtable Discussions: 42.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
- Course only, no Lunch-and-Learn Roundtable Discussions: 37.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
- Course and ACLS Workshop: 40.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
- Course and Ultrasound Workshop: 40.50 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
- Course and Difficult Airway Workshop: 42.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
- MOCA Workshop 5.50 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™

This activity meets the criteria of the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Medicine for 4.0 hours of Risk Management Study. This includes 2.0 Credits of Opioid Education and Pain Management training. Please check your individual state licensing board requirements before claiming these credits.

This program has received prior approval from the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists for 50 CE credits (AANA Code #1030661, Expiration Date 5/15/15) for the course with all workshops (excludes ACLS, Ether Dome or MOCA Simulation) and Lunch-and-Learn Roundtable Sessions. Course only: 37.5 credits.

ACGME Competencies

This course is designed to meet the following competencies: Patient care, medical knowledge, practice-based learning and improvement, interpersonal and communication skills, professionalism, and systems-based practice.
